

Carline Series Drivers Confirmed

NASR National Office posted Tuesday October 6, 2009.

The contracted driver line-up for the 2009/2010 Carline Mufflers National Super Sedan Series has been confirmed, with 24 drivers from five states having committed to the full 10-round schedule. A stellar field has been secured for the championship chase - including all the big names on the national Super Sedan scene - for what is shaping as a spectacular fifth anniversary season.

The field includes a mixture of high profile champions, experienced campaigners and exciting newcomers, including at least five drivers making their first assault on the series chasing Rookie of the Year honours.

The full list of 2009/2010 Carline Mufflers National Super Sedan Series contracted drivers will be released very soon, so stay tuned.
